DESCRIPTION:	In-kind book donations to USA Title 1 schools and Title 1 school teachers, as well as other schools with low-income students. Through this program, schools are awarded children's books and related educational resources that help get encourage underserved children across the country to read. This program is designed to use kids' love of Magic Tree House adventures and their identification with Jack and Annie to spark interest in learning across the curriculum and accomplish classroom requirements in creative, meaningful and long-lasting ways. Magic Tree House books and Fact Trackers are effective teaching tools for Kindergarten, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th grade levels as well as Special Education classrooms. Keep in mind, books may be shared among the classrooms within your school. Proposals will be evaluated by a committee of educators, and grants will be awarded to the schools with the most creative and meaningful initiatives. The funding source especially loves to hear how Magic Tree House books and Fact Trackers will be used across the curriculum in your classroom.
RESTRICTIONS:	Grants will be awarded to Title 1 eligible school teachers only.
